SUBJECT: Reserve Component Representation, North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)
National Reserve Forces Committee (NRFC) and NATO Schools

References: See Enclosure 1

1. PURPOSE. In accordance with the authority in DoD Directive 5124.02 (Reference (a)), this instruction:

a. Establishes policy, assigns responsibilities, and provides procedures regarding Reserve Components (RCs) of the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) and the Joint Staff representation at the NATO NRFC, a NATO Subcommittee of the Military Committee, and NATO schools in accordance with DoD Directive 5105.20 (Reference (b)).

b. Cancels Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs Memorandum (Reference (c)).

2. APPLICABILITY. This instruction applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the CJCS and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD.

3. POLICY. It is DoD policy:

a. That the DoD provides guidance within respective fields of responsibility to NATO in accordance with Reference (b).

b. To provide a U.S. National Delegation to the NRFC.

c. To advise the NRFC on Reserve issues, and enhance the utility and interests of U.S. RCs as a vital component of the combined Armed Forces of the Alliance Nations, known in this issuance as "the Alliance," in accordance with Reference (b).

d. To provide guidance to the NRFC to strengthen the readiness and effectiveness of the Alliance Reserves to support NATO across the full spectrum of operations and ensure policies encourage optimum integration of RC personnel to provide the most operational benefits to mission capability.

e. To provide technical advice, direction, and policy guidance in relation to the integration of RC forces to the Alliance, in coordination with the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy.

f. That training opportunities are available to all personnel in DoD RC NATO schools, including the shared use of resources, operational benefits, and mission capabilities in accordance with DoD Directive 1200.17 (Reference (d)).

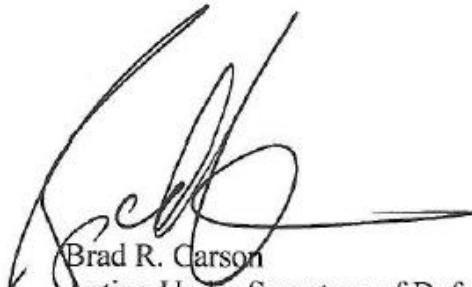

g. That RC Service members enroll in appropriate NATO courses supporting individual or unit readiness for mobilization in support of current or future missions.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES. See Enclosure 2.

5. PROCEDURES. See Enclosure 3.

GLOSSARY

PART I. ABBREVIATIONS AND ACRONYMS

CJCS	Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff
HoD	Head of Delegation
NATO	North Atlantic Treaty Organization
NRFC	National Reserve Forces Committee
RC	Reserve Component
SO	Staff Officer

PART II. DEFINITIONS

Unless otherwise noted, these terms and their definitions are for purpose of this instruction.

Alliance Reserves. The Reserve Components of NATO Alliance members, partners, and observers.

Allied Command Transformation. NATO's leading agent for change, driving, facilitating, and advocating continuous improvement of Alliance capabilities to maintain and enhance the military relevance and effectiveness of the Alliance. NATO Allied Command Transformation is responsible for the planning and delivery of NATO education and training programmes using NATO and national facilities.

Inter-Allied Confederation of Reserve Officers. An independent body founded in 1948, which represents the Reserve officers from 28 NATO members and eight associated countries. It was officially recognized by NATO in 1976 (see North Atlantic Military Committee Directive 0248/1 (Reference (g))) with the objectives of providing advice on the best utilization of Reservists, continuing to improve the knowledge of NATO authorities about national Reserve Forces, and exchanging information between member nations. It is a non-political, non-governmental, non-profit-making organization, which cooperates with the NATO Alliance on Reservists' issues (see North Atlantic Military Committee Directive 0248/2 (Reference (h))).

Military Committee. The senior military authority in NATO and the oldest permanent body in NATO after the North Atlantic Council. It is the primary source of military advice to NATO's civilian decision-making bodies: the North Atlantic Council and the Nuclear Planning Group.

NRFC. An advisory body that prepares conceptual proposals and develops approaches for the Military Committee and member countries concerning Reserve forces issues.
